

Tax the Rich

(Verse)

Congratulations — you're rich.

Now what?

Got the yacht, got the watch,

Still empty as your thoughts.

Money solves problems...

'Till it is the problem.

You keep stacking zeroes

'Cause you can't outrun boredom.

(Pre-Chorus)

You say it's ambition,

But darling — it's sick.

Worshipping a number

That never forgives.

(Chorus)

Tax the rich,

They won't feel a thing.

Tax the rich,

They don't even blink.

Two times richer,

No joy to bring —

If you need another billion,

Therapy is cheaper.

Tax the rich,

Tax the rich,

Tax the rich,
Tax the rich,

(Verse)

You say you earned freedom —
But you bought a cage.
A palace of ego
And a lifetime of rage.

You keep chasing profit
Like you need air,
But every time you double it,
You feel the despair.

(Pre-Chorus)

You say you're "efficient",
But everyone can see:
You're terrified of silence —
So you pay it not to be.

(Chorus)

Tax the rich,
They won't feel a thing.
Tax the rich,
They don't even blink.
Two times richer,
No joy to bring —
If you need another billion,
Therapy is cheaper.

(Chorus)

Tax the rich,

They won't feel a thing.
Tax the rich,
They don't even blink.
Two times richer,
No joy to bring —
If you need another billion,
Therapy is cheaper.

(Bridge)

How many zeros
Until you feel alive?
How many mansions
To prove you can thrive?
How many millions
Till you face the mirror straight...
Rich doesn't fix

A heart that aches.

(Chorus)

Tax the rich,
They won't feel a thing.
Tax the rich,
They don't even blink.
Two times richer,
No joy to bring —
If you need another billion,
Therapy is cheaper.

Tax the rich,
Tax the rich,

Tax the rich,
Tax the rich,

(Outro)

Go on...

Buy the world.

Go on...

Buy the world.

And now what?
